

Wake & Bake Showcase Brunch

Following a night of MJBizCon
afterparty revelry

Canna Newswire's media showcase events put companies face-to-face with dozens of important journalists from relevant cannabis and consumer mainstream media. By invitation only, November's THC-friendly event is open to both consumer and B2B cannabis companies, particularly those who are doing business in Nevada.

Thursday, November 15, 2018

11:00 am – 2:00 pm

*(With time before and after to set up and tear down;
start and finish time may adjust to accommodate media attending MJBizCon nearby)*

Venue Located Just 10 Minutes Away in Arts District

What do you get?

We'll bring the media and provide your company interactive exhibit space. You bring your new products or industry news, and any supplies that best show off your company/product within the provided demo space. Don't forget to bring samples (as appropriate) to hand out to reporters who stop by and visit. Each showcase stand costs $1200 (plus a $50 contribution to the Canna Newswire media travel grant fund).

Each exhibitor receives:

- 1 interactive exhibition space
- Passes for 2 company reps
- No limits on how many new products you can pitch (per exhibiting brand)
- Pre- and post-event social posts
- Online digital press kit (remains online for one year)
- Media contact list
- All this and more!

Ask about sponsorship and premium gift bag opportunities

CONTACT: editorial@cannanewswire.co | 503.989.5474

 Canna Newswire has established relationships to help you produce any marketing support you need, from retractable banner stands to literature to swag.*